Kyushu, Japan | Nature

Duration: 5N/6D

Cities: Kyushu

Itinerary

Day 1 - Fukuoka Airport Arrival

- Welcome to Japan
- After arriving at Fukuoka Airport, transfer to the hotel
- Hotel check in

Day 2 - Asai no Ippon Sakura(Single Cherry Blossom Tree)-TOSU Premium outlet-Yanagawa canal punting tour

- After breakfast, Checkout from Hotel
- Asai no Ippon Sakura(Single Cherry Blossom Tree): Said to be about 100 years old, this mountain cherry tree is 18 meters (nearly 60 feet) tall and measures 4.3 meters (about 14 feet) around its trunk. It has been carefully looked after by local citizens and blooms magnificently every year. The cherry blossom tree has a dignified quality and an abundance of flowers. The "sakasa zakura" (or upside-down cherry blossom tree, an effect achieved when the tree and blue sky are reflected in the pond below) is worth a gander.

TOSU Premium outlet: An outlet which collected the brands all over the world at Tosu, Saga-Ken. It was designed like the south of California, Us. There is a round of the fresh air and the tourists can shop comfortably.

Yanagawa: Yanagawa, an artificial river which flows around the city and named "the village of water" since the Eiroku period. Yanagawa is commonly referred to as the water city because of its 470km of canal, which visitors to the city can explore on punt-like boats known as donkobune. The city is located close to the mouth of the Chikugo river, which supplies the water for the canal.

- Hotel Check In

Day 3 - Kumamoto Suizen Park -Josaien-Castle Kumamoto(outside)-Kumamoto Square

- Breakfast at the hotel
- Suizenji Park: Suizenji park is a Japanese style landscape garden in Kumamoto, best enjoyed by strolling along a circular path. It was built by the Hosokawa family in the 17th century.
- Josaien: Reminiscent of the old castle town, Josaien is a tourist facility that welcomes many tourists. Sakura no kohji in this facility is a complex consisting of seven restaurants and 16 commodity retail stores that feature the unique tastes of Kumamoto. It is a treasurehouse of gourmet foods and souvenirs filled with the only things available here.

- Castle Kumamoto(outside view): Castle Kumamoto is one of the most impressive castles in Japan. With large castle grounds and a variety of buildings, Castle Kumamoto offers its visitors one of the most complete castle experiences in Japan. Only a few structures have survived the centuries since the castle's construction in 1607 intact. The castle keep and most other buildings are modern reconstructions, but the reconstructions are mostly of a high quality and buildings are continually being added. With about 800 cherry trees, the castle becomes a popular cherry blossom spot usually in late March and early April.

Day 4 - Beppu to Yufuin-Lake Kinrin-UmiJigoku(Sea Hell)-The torture of Blood Pond(Chinoikejigoku)

- After breakfast, Checkout from Hotel
- Yufuin Onsen Town: Yufuin Onsen, located in Oita prefecture in the Kyusyu Region, is a hot spring resort especially popular with female tourist and family groups. View Mount Yufu while soaking in an open-air bath is an exhilarating experience. Visitors can also enjoy dining, shopping and art museums in the quiet town.

Lake Kinrin? The famous travel spot one of Yufuin. The reason is while the sunrise, its morning mists created when water welling up from hot and cold springs mix. its name came from a Confucian scholar who spotted a gold-scaled fish in the waters around the sunset one day.

Hot Springs Hell in Beppu: The `hells` of the beppu are seven spectacular hot springs for viewing rather than bathing. They are presented to visitors in a rather tourisy fashion, which might not appeal to everybody. Five of the hells are located in the Kannawa district and two in the more remote Shibaseki district. The five of hells are Oniishibozu Jigoku, Shiraike Jigoku, Kamado Jigoku, Oniyama jigoku and the heatest onsen `Umi Jlgoku` which the heat is reach over 98degree.

Day 5 - Daizaifu-Tenmangu-Maizuru Park-Fukuoka Tower-Canal city Fukuoka

- After breakfast, Checkout from Hotel
- Daizaifu Tenmangu: Daizaifu was the capital of Kyusyu for 5 hundreds years. Dazaifu Tenmangu is a shrine built over the grave of Michizane Sugawara venerated by the Japanese throughout the country as the Tenman-Tenjin (the deified spirit of Michizane), or the God of literature or calligraphy. Daizaifu is the palace that Michizane Sugawara lived at, and it was setted as world heritage site. The tourists come here and pray for increase knowledge, dodge from then unfortune.

Maizuru Park: This park is built around Fukuoka castle ruins and located within just 15 minutes from Tenjin (the center of Fukuoka city). It is well known as a viewing spot of cherry blossom and other seasonal plants and flowers. The park has an athletic field and other sports facility and is adjoined to the Ohori Park and Fukuoka City Art Museum. In spring, the cherry blossoms in the park attract a lot of people, and the surrounding areas make it a nice relaxation spot with a cultural atmosphere all year round.

Fukuoka Tower: This tower of 234 meters above sea level is the tallest beach tower in Japan. This symbolic building of Fukuoka's western subcenter, covered by as many as 8000 half-mirrors and boasting a sharp appearance with its triangular structure, is known by the name of Mirror Sail. The room is equipped with up-to-date telescopes. Come seasons of Tanabata (traditional star festival) or Christmas, the tower romantically decorates the night view of the city with illumination lights on its half mirrors. On the first floor are shops of local specialties such as Hakata's traditional confections or mentaiko (cod ovum), an eat-in cafe and a European style restaurant.

Canal City Fukuoka: The most popular shopping center in Kyusyu Area. There's an approximately 180-meter-long "canal" crosses the center of Canal City surrounded by curvy, colorful buildings. The dynamic fountain show informs the flow of time. Many performances and music lives are performed daily on the waterside stage, and this city of entertainment is a gathering spot, location to rest, and the city full of life.
